IT'S £40K AND COUNTING!

That's what Newquay Beer Festival has raised for Charities and good causes since it started in 2013.

Now in it's seventh year, members of Newquay Towan Blystra Lions Club who organise the festival all hope it will be as enjoyable and successful as previous events.

This year the undercover provision has been increased meaning we now have a larger beer marquee and we've increased the number of beers and ciders available to at least 100 (50 of each) plus we have a couple of lagers, wines and soft drinks.

We have made many friends who keep coming back to enjoy the wide range of beers and ciders plus the atmosphere with music providing a perfect accompaniment to the wide range of beers and ciders. Everyone, including the music artists, give their time free of charge at the event and all our sponsors deserve a special mention for the financial and other assistance provided.

As always, please enjoy your drinking responsibly and don't forget we operate a 'Challenge 25' policy on the gate so, if you are lucky enough to look that young, please bring along some proof of age or we will have to turn you away.

4 NIGHT HENDRA STAY AND FESTIVAL ENTRY

FOR TWO FOR JUST

£60

That's right, by booking in advance you can get superb value, especially if you have a caravan, tent or motor-home and would like to stay on-site.

Earlybird tickets are available on-line through into September and give great savings on gate prices, while camping pitches start at just £7.50 a night.

So, if you and a partner stay for four nights - Thu/Fri/Sat/Sun, and buy two Earlybird three-day tickets, it will cost just £60 or, with an electric hook-up, £67. Shorter stays can be booked too. All Hendra's Five Star facilities are available to use like other residents and the Beer Festival welcomes dogs, children and well-behaved owners!

To book, just go to:
newquaybeerfestival.co.uk
and enjoy a long weekend.
